

Stanley Kraska

Chief Executive Officer, Securities

Stanley is a Managing Director of LaSalle Investment Management (Securities) with more than twenty years of real estate experience. He is a member of the U.S. Securities and Global Securities Advisory Committees as well as the Global Management Committee of LaSalle Investment Management. His responsibilities include portfolio management and overall group management.

Mr. Kraska's experience at the Firm includes special situation and private placement investments, leading an investment program that invested opportunistically in real estate by re-capitalizing existing private real estate companies and public Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs). Prior to Mr. Kraska's work in the Securities division, he worked as an investment professional of the firm investing in a wide variety of property types and markets. He joined the Firm in 1988.

Preceding joining Alex Brown Kleinwort Benson Realty Advisors 1988, which merged with LaSalle Partners in 1994, Mr. Kraska worked in the real estate department at First Boston Corporation located in New York City from 1986 to 1988. From 1982 to 1984, Mr. Kraska worked in the Bond department at T. Rowe Price Associates located in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. Kraska received his M.B.A. from Harvard Business School and his B.A. in Engineering Sciences from Dartmouth College. Mr. Kraska is a member of Urban Land Institute (ULI), and National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT).