

Kimball Woodrow

Chief Operating Officer, Global

Kim is responsible for financial management, human resources, client accounting and reporting, information technology and business operations. He joined LaSalle Partners in 1982, working in the property management group for eight years before moving into investment management, where he served as head of Portfolio Management. He became LaSalle's COO in 2001.

Before joining LaSalle Kim was of Director of Johnson, Johnson & Roy, a consulting company based in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He has an MA in Urban Planning and a BA from the University of Michigan.