

David Ironside

International Director, Germany

David Ironside is President of the LaSalle German Income and Growth Fund, and LaSalle German Retail Venture and responsible for LaSalle's acquisitions in Germany and Northern Europe. He is also a Geschäftsführer (General Manager) of LaSalle GmbH/LaSalle Investment Management in Germany.

David joined LaSalle in 2001 after four years with Bayernfonds/Real I.S. AG, the subsidiary of Bayerische Landesbank responsible for real estate investments. Prior to his role at Bayernfonds, David was with Jones Lang Wootton where he gained detailed knowledge of the German markets. At Bayernfonds David was responsible for foreign acquisitions. In this role he had been in charge of acquiring properties in the USA as well as in major European countries such as France, Belgium and Spain for various investment purposes. In addition he was responsible for supervising acquisitions in Germany and asset management.

David has lived in Germany since 1990. He holds a BSc in Land Economics from Paisley College of Technology and is a Member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors.