

George J. Noon

Portfolio Manager, Real Estate Securities

A portfolio manager of global and Asia Pacific real estate securities programs, George has 19 years' investment experience. He is a member of LaSalle's U.S. Securities and Global Securities Investment Committees. As well as portfolio management, George has also provided analytical coverage for real estate securities.

Before joining LaSalle in 1990 George was as a portfolio manager and institutional investment advisor with Mellon Bank in Philadelphia. A graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania with a degree in Economics, he is a CFA charterholder, an associate member of NAREIT and a member of the Baltimore Security Analysts Society.